

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF ILLINOIS
EASTERN DIVISION

FENDI, S.R.L.,

Plaintiff,

v.

THE PARTNERSHIPS and
UNINCORPORATED ASSOCIATIONS
IDENTIFIED ON SCHEDULE "A",

Defendants.

Case No. 1:24-cv-05629

District Judge April M. Perry

DEFAULT JUDGMENT ORDER

This action having been commenced by Plaintiff Fendi, S.R.L. ("Fendi") against the defendants identified on Schedule A, and using the Defendant Domain Names and Online Marketplace Accounts identified on Schedule A (collectively, the "Defendant Internet Stores"), and Fendi having moved for entry of Default and Default Judgment against the defendants which have not yet been dismissed from this case (collectively, "Defaulting Defendants");

This Court having entered a preliminary injunction; Fendi having properly completed service of process on Defaulting Defendants, the combination of providing notice via electronic publication and e-mail, along with any notice that Defaulting Defendants received from domain name registrars and payment processors, notice reasonably calculated under all circumstances to apprise Defaulting Defendants of the pendency of the action and affording them the opportunity to answer and present their objections; and

None of the Defaulting Defendants having answered or appeared in any way, and the time for answering having expired, so that the allegations of the Complaint are uncontroverted and are deemed admitted;

This Court finds that it has personal jurisdiction over Defaulting Defendants because Defaulting Defendants directly target their business activities toward consumers in the United States, including Illinois. Specifically, Fendi has provided a basis to conclude that Defaulting Defendants have targeted sales to Illinois residents by setting up and operating e-commerce stores that target United States consumers using one or more seller aliases, offer shipping to the United States, including Illinois, and have sold products using infringing and counterfeit versions of Fendi's federally registered trademarks (the "Fendi Trademarks") to residents of Illinois. In this case, Fendi has presented screenshot evidence that each Defendant e-commerce store is reaching out to do business with Illinois residents by operating one or more commercial, interactive internet stores through which Illinois residents can and do purchase products using counterfeit versions of the Fendi Trademarks.

This Court also finds that the Defendants are liable for willful federal trademark infringement and counterfeiting (15 U.S.C. § 1114) and false designation of origin (15 U.S.C. § 1125(a)). Specifically, Fendi has proved a prima facie case of trademark infringement because (1) the Fendi Trademarks are distinctive marks registered with the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office on the Principal Register, (2) Defendants are not licensed or authorized to use the Fendi Trademarks, and (3) Defendants' use of the Fendi Trademarks is causing a likelihood of confusion as to the origin or sponsorship of Defendants' products with Fendi.

Accordingly, this Court orders that Fendi's Motion for Entry of Default and Default Judgment is GRANTED as follows, that Defaulting Defendants are deemed in default, and that this Default Judgment is entered against Defaulting Defendants.

Pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1117(c)(2), Fendi is awarded statutory damages from each of the Defaulting Defendants in the amount set forth in the below chart for willful use of counterfeit Fendi Trademarks on products sold through the Defendant Internet Stores. This award shall apply to each distinct Defaulting Defendant only once, even if they are listed under multiple different aliases in the Complaint and Schedule A.

Any Third Party Providers holding funds for Defaulting Defendants, including PayPal, Inc. (“PayPal”), Alipay, Alibaba, Wish.com, Ant Financial Services Group (“Ant Financial”), and Amazon Pay, shall, within seven (7) calendar days of receipt of this Order, permanently restrain and enjoin any accounts connected to Defaulting Defendants or the Defendant Internet Stores from transferring or disposing of any funds (up to the statutory damages awarded in Paragraph 6 above) or other of Defaulting Defendants’ assets.

All monies (up to the amount of the statutory damages awarded in Paragraph 6 above) currently restrained in Defaulting Defendants’ financial accounts, including monies held by Third Party Providers such as PayPal, Alipay, Alibaba, Wish.com, Ant Financial, and Amazon Pay, are hereby released to Fendi as partial payment of the above-identified damages, and Third Party Providers, including PayPal, Alipay, Alibaba, Wish.com, Ant Financial, and Amazon Pay, are ordered to release to Fendi the amounts from Defaulting Defendants’ financial accounts within fourteen (14) calendar days of receipt of this Order.

Until Fendi has recovered full payment of monies owed to it by any Defaulting Defendant, Fendi shall have the ongoing authority to commence supplemental proceedings under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 69.

In the event that Fendi identifies any additional online marketplace accounts or financial accounts owned by Defaulting Defendants, Fendi may send notice of any supplemental proceeding, including a citation to discover assets, to Defaulting Defendants by e-mail.

This is a Default Judgment.
